BBSC Minutes of Meeting

June 3rd, 2024

The meeting was attended by 15 members and no guests. The meeting date was changed to accommodate attending the city council meeting Tuesday night concerning the gun show resolution.

Location of the meeting was the Masonic Lodge in Alpine. The meeting was called to order at 6:04pm by president Jim Westermann. John O Hollis gave the invocation.

The meeting began with an extended discussion of the city council resolution.

Reports

The May 7th minutes were read by Scott McClanahan. Kyp Angel motioned to accept and Roger Amis seconded, and the minutes were accepted.

Liz Measures read the treasurer's report. Expenses include clay targets, web page hosting for 3 years, and padlocks for the conexas. 10 new members, up to 444 paid members, 12 below this time last year. Kyp Angel motioned to accept, John O Hollis seconded, the report was accepted.

No shotgun or archery reports this month.

Old Business

The BBSF Banquet date changed to Thursday, August 15th. Robert Johnson motioned to fund $3000 for 3 guns for the banquet, plus 3 BBSC memberships. Roger Amis seconded, the motion carried. The BBSF will take donations of guns and ammo for the event.

New Business

Don Boren asked about group purchases of reloading components by the club. This is common in other clubs. Parking behind the berm was brought up again. A cleanup day at the range was floated, but too hot to schedule at this time.

Robert Johnson motioned to adjourn at 6:55pm and Dean Willis seconded.

Respectfully Submitted,

Scott McClanahan #270

BBSC Secretary
