Meeting called to order: 6:03 PM
By: President Kyp Angel

Prayer: None

President's Report:

President Kyp mentioned there will not be much on the agenda for the next two months due to the holidays. He also discussed planning a Family Youth Shoot for February or March.

Guests: None

Reading of Minutes:

Minutes from the previous meeting were read by Secretary Lea Catano.

Motion to accept minutes: Roger

Second: Dave

Motion carried and accepted by all.

Treasurer's Report:

Presented by Treasurer Liz Measures.

- Six checks were written.
- Current membership total: 269 members.
- About half of the keys have been sold.

Motion to accept treasurer's report: Ralph

Second: Dave

Motion carried.

Range Reports:

- Shotgun: No report; no representative present.

- Rifle: Nothing new to report.
- Pistol: Regular crowd continues to attend.
- Archery: No updates.

Old Business:

- Turkey Shoot: After-action report was tabled.
- BBSF Banquet: Jim reported the event went very well. Approximately $9,000–$10,000 profit was made, and all tables were sold.

Mowing:

Jim noted that Hector Holguin has been handling the mowing, and the range is looking good. The range will be closed on Wednesday, November 5, from 7:00 AM to 1:00 PM. Discussion was held regarding burning weeds at the range.

New Business:

None.

Open Discussion / Announcements:

- Jim mentioned Luke Hendrex spoke about holding a youth shoot with 4H, involving approximately 8–12 participants in the shotgun category. Ralph will take the lead.
- Plan to clean and inspect rifles that have been stored in the trailer; this could be a good starting point for the youth event.
- Kyp suggested hosting a “Bacon or Ham Shoot” in March as a fundraiser, possibly benefiting the Family Crisis Center.

Next Meeting:

Scheduled for December 2, 2025.

Adjournment:

Motion to adjourn: Roger

Second: Ralph

Meeting adjourned at 6:21 PM.
